DONALD F. MASSEY JOINS
GRAY AND COMPANY
GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Donald F. Massey, former chief Counsel of the Senate Committee on Appropriations and Deputy Sergeant at Arms, has been named a Senior Vice President of Gray and Company Public Communications International, it was announced today.

Massey has been Minority Counsel to the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, and Assistant Legislative Counsel and intelligence analyst with the Central Intelligence Agency.

Massey, who has a decade of experience working with key members of Congress, will join the Government Relations Division.

"He brings us unique knowledge and insight gained from first-hand experience, working directly with members of key Senate committees," said Chairman and CEO Robert K. Gray. "He both represented an agency before Congress and worked for Senators in the legislative process. Don is a valuable addition to the Gray team."
